FAMILY: Monday evenings 6:00pm Moms Group in FR

Ideas to celebrate Holy Week:

*Attend Holy Week Liturgies! (See times elsewhere in bulletin.)

*Family history and traditions are a fun way to increase your family unity and bond. Have one family member make up 20-25 questions regarding little-known facts about your family. Questions can be things like, "Where did mom and dad get married?" "What is Joey's favorite color?" "What was the name of our first family pet?"

*The Israelites made unleavened bread when they were waiting for the summons to leave. Make simple matzo using any of the recipes found online. Ingredients are usually only flour, salt, olive oil, and water. This is where we get the tradition of using wafers for Holy Communion.

*Do some research on the Seder Meal eaten by our Jewish brothers and sisters during Passover. You can even make some of the food in your own home! Find the How-to from the Food Network.

*Watch the animated film Prince of Egypt.

*Roast lamb for dinner. It's easier to find around Passover, and it's delicious. Talk about what it means that Jesus is the Lamb of God.

DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY—April 11, 2021

"I want the Image (which Jesus instructed Saint Faustina to have painted as she saw him) to be solemnly blessed on the first Sunday after Easter, and I want it to be venerated publicly so that every soul may know about it. By means of this Image I shall be granting many graces to souls." (Saint Faustina's Diary 341)
